1.Preamble

In the present scenario of competitive banking, excellence in customer services is the most important tool for sustained business growth. Customer complaints are part of the business life of any corporate entity. This is more so for banks because banks are service organization. As a service organization, customer service and customer satisfaction should be the prime concern of any bank. The bank believes that providing prompt and efficient service is essential not only to attract new customers, but also to retain existing one.

2.Objective

The bank's policy on grievance redressal follows the under noted principles:

1. Customers be treated fairly at all times.
 2. Complaints raised by customers are dealt with courtesy and on time.
 3. Customers are fully informed of avenues to escalate their complaints/grievances within the organization and their rights to alternative remedy, if they are not fully satisfied with the response of the bank to their complaints.
 4. Bank will treat all complaints efficiently and fairly as they can damage the bank's reputation and business if handled otherwise.
- The bank employees must work in good faith and without prejudice to the interests of the customer.

3.Scope

This policy document aims at minimizing instances of customer complaints and grievances through proper service delivery and review mechanism and to ensure prompt redressal of customer complaints and grievances. The review mechanism should help in identifying shortcomings in product features and service delivery. Customer dissatisfaction would spoil bank's name and image.

4.Policy

1. Cause of Customer complaint:

- a) The attitudinal aspects in dealing with customers
- b) Inadequacy of the functions/arrangements made available to the customers or gaps in standards of services expected and actual services rendered.

The customer is having full right to register his complaint if he is not satisfied with the services provided by the bank. He can give his complaint in writing, orally or over telephone. If customer's complaint is not resolved within given time or if he is not satisfied with the solution provided by the bank, he can approach Banking Ombudsman with his complaint or other legal avenues available for grievance redressal.

- Social Media: Customers may give their feedback on social media.

1.2 Recording & tracking of complaints:

All complaints received by the Bank will be recorded and tracked for end-to-end resolution. All complaints received in India is lodged in feedback portal and assigned to the respective Regional Office/functional Departments/branch for resolution.

1.3 Acknowledgement:

- Acknowledgement will be sent to all the customers by way of a Reference Number, via email and to the email ID and mobile number provided by the customer at the time of lodging the complaint. In case of receipt of complaint through any mode other than feedback portal, the same will be lodged into feedback portal by the respective channel/ branch and the Reference Number will be sent to the complainant.
- Using the reference Number, the customer can track the status of the complaint at any given point of time.

1.4 Resolution of complaints:

- The concerned Regional Office or functional departments are responsible for solution and closure of customer issues.

- An intimation will be sent to the customer on redressal and closure of the complaint.
- A dedicated Customer Service department has been set up at Head Office, Regional Office, to assess the quality and timeliness of the resolutions provided. This department also analyses the root causes of the complaints and takes necessary steps to eradicate them.
- In case the Bank is liable to pay any compensation, the same would be paid to the complainant as per the provisions of the Customer Compensation Policy of the Bank.
- Redressal of complaints related to unauthorized Electronic Banking Transactions will be ensured as per Customer Protection Policy — Limiting Liability of Customers in Unauthorized Electronic Banking. The Policy is placed on website of our Bank.
- Customers have the option to provide their feedback upon resolution of their complaint through banks feedback portal or on registered emails of respective branch or departments.

1.5 Turnaround Time

Bank will endeavor to redress complaints within a maximum period of 21 business days. However, specific turnaround times (TAT) depending on the nature of complaints has been stipulated by the Bank and the same is enclosed here as Annexure 1.

In case, the bank requires more time to redress the complaint, Bank will intimate the customer and an interim response will be sent.

1.6 Escalation Matrix:

If the resolution provided at the first level, does not meet the customer's expectation, the customer can approach the Regional/Zonal/Principal Nodal Officer*:

Sl.No.	Level	Day of lodging/Escalation	Days Available for Redressal
1.	Branch/Call-center/Feedback portal	Day1	5Days
Escalation	Matrix
2.	Regional Office	Day6	3Days
3.	Head Office	Day9	3Days
4.	Principal Nodal Officer	Day12	1 Day

* The contact details of the Senior Management and Principal Nodal Officer have been provided on the bank's website.

1.7 Internal Ombudsman of the Bank:

As recommended by RBI, the bank has appointed an Internal Ombudsman. The Internal Ombudsman is an independent authority and is not a Nainital Bank employee.

In case the Bank decides to reject a complaint or provide only partial relief to the complainant, Bank will forward such complaints to the Internal Ombudsman for further examination.

Complaints will be independently reviewed by the IBO and the decision of the Internal Ombudsman of the Bank will be binding on the Bank. However, the bank may in certain cases disagree with the decision of Internal Ombudsman, and such cases would be reported to RBI by the Internal Ombudsman and also by the Bank.

Effective Date of Release	25.06.2023	Version Number	1.1.2

1.8 Escalation to regulator:

If customer's complaint is not resolved within given time or in case the customer is not satisfied with the response from the Bank (duly examined by Internal Ombudsman), customer may approach the Banking Ombudsman (RBI). (The details of BO are made available on the Bank's website and branches). Details of Banking Ombudsman is also attached as per Annexure 2.

1.9 Root Cause Analysis of complaints

Bank's aim is to minimize instances of customer complaints. Bank shall make efforts to conduct root cause analysis in areas where bank receives large numbers of complaints/complaints of repetitive nature to identify weak areas if any. This review mechanism will help the bank in identifying shortcomings (in product features, services or technology) and taking necessary measures to address the same.

2. Internal Machinery to Handle Customer Complaints/Grievances:

2.1-Customer Service Committee of the Board;

This sub-committee of the Board would also be responsible for formulation of a Comprehensive Deposit Policy incorporating the issues such as the treatment of death of a depositor for operations of his account, the product approval process, and the annual survey of depositor satisfaction and the triennial audit of such services. The Committee would also examine any other issues having a bearing on the quality of customer service rendered. This committee would also review the functioning of Standing Committee on Customer Service.

2.2-Standing Committee on Customer Service:

The Chief Operating Officer of the Bank will chair the Standing Committee on Customer Service. Besides two or three senior executives of the bank, the committee would also have two or three eminent non-executives drawn from the public as members. The committee would have the following functions;

- Evaluate feedback on quality of customer services received from various quarters. The committee would also review comments/feedback on customer service and implementation of commitments in the Code of Bank's Commitment to Customers received from BCSBI.
- The committee would be responsible to ensure that all regulatory instructions regarding customer services are followed by the bank. Towards this, the committee would also obtain necessary feedback from Regional managers/functional heads.
- The committee would also consider unresolved complaints/grievances referred to it by functional heads responsible for redressal and offer their advice.
- The committee would submit report on its performance to the customer service committee of the board at quarterly intervals

3. NODAL OFFICER AND OTHER DESIGNATED OFFICIALS TO HANDLE COMPLAINTS AND GRIEVANCES

Bank would appoint Nodal Officer of the rank of Associate Vice President and above who will be responsible for the implementation of customer service and complaint handling for the entire bank. The bank may also appoint other designated officers at specified centres to handle complaint grievances in respect of branches following under their control. The name and contact details of nodal officer(s) will be displayed on branch notice boards and banks' website.

4-MANDATORY DISPLAY REQUIREMENTS:

It is mandatory for the bank to provide:

- *Appropriate arrangement for receiving complaints and suggestions.
- *The name, address and contact number of Nodal Officer(s).
- *Contact details of Banking Ombudsman of the area.
- *Code of bank's commitments to customers/ Fair Practice Code.
- *Displaying of names and other details of Managing Director & CEO/Executive Directors / line of functionaries for various operations at the Bank's website.

5-INTERACTION WITH CUSTOMERS

The bank recognizes that customer's expectation/ requirement/ grievances can be better appreciated through personal interaction with customers by bank's staff. Structured customer meets, say once in a month will give a message to the customers that the bank cares for them and value their feedback/suggestion for improvement in customer service. Many of the complaints arise on account of lack of awareness among customers about bank services and such interactions will help the customers appreciate banking service better. As for the bank the feedback from the customers would be valuable input for revising its products and services to meet customer requirements.

6. SENSITIZING OPERATING STAFF ON HANDLING COMPLAINTS

Staff should be properly trained for handling complaints. We are dealing with people and hence difference of opinion and areas of friction can arise. With an open mind and a smile on the face we should be able to win the customer's confidence. Imparting soft skills required for handling irate customers, to be an integral part of the training programs. It would be the responsibility of the Nodal Officer to ensure that internal machinery for handling complaints/grievances operates smoothly and efficiently at all levels. He should give feedback on training needs of staff at various levels to the HRM Department.

7.Applicability

The policy is effective from 25th June, 2023

8.Periodicity of Review of Policy

The policy will be effective for 12 months i.e. upto 24.06.2024. The Approved Policy may be reviewed/ amended before 24.06.2023. If there is any change /fresh guidelines issued by RBI/Government/Bank.
