

Revised as per RBI ISE 2023

The following Ratios and Limits have been recalculated after incorporating the divergence observed by RBI in its ISE 2023 report and needs to be disclosed in the Bank's website.

(Rs. in Crore)

S.No.	Ratios	As on 30.6.2023	Revised 30.6.2023	Remarks
1	CET 1 Capital	717.81	709.26	Down by 8.55 Crs
2	Tier 2 capital	64.63	47.29	Down by 17.34 Crs
3	Total Capital	782.44	756.55	Down by 25.89 Crs
4	CET 1 Capital Ratio	15.18%	15.00%	Down by 18 bps
5	Tier 2 Capital Ratio	1.37%	1.00%	Down by 37 bps
6	Total CRAR Ratio	16.55%	16.00%	Down by 55 bps
7	Leverage Ratio	8.05%	7.96%	Down by 9 bps
8	NSFR Ratio	194.84%	194.13%	Down by 71 bps

There are various Regulatory and Prudential Limits which are linked to Tier 1 Capital and Total Capital of the Bank. Since, there is a change in Tier 1 Capital and Total Capital of the Bank, the following limits has also undergone a change:

- Single and Group Borrower Limit
- Investment Limits,
- Various Advances Limits and
- All other Limits linked to Tier 1 Capital and Total Capital of the Bank.

Sachin Kumar
Chief Risk Officer