

Revised as per RBI ISE 2023

The following Ratios and Limits have been recalculated after incorporating the divergence observed by RBI in its ISE 2023 report and needs to be disclosed in the Bank's website.

(Rs. in Crore)

	Ratios	As on 31.3.2023	Revised 31.3.2023	Remarks
1	CET 1 Capital	728.36	709.36	Down by 19.00 Crs
2	Tier 2 capital	47.25	47.25	No Change
3	Total Capital	775.61	756.61	Down by 19.00 Crs
4	CET 1 Capital Ratio	15.63%	15.23%	Down by 40 bps
5	Tier 2 Capital Ratio	1.01%	1.01%	No Change
6	Total CRAR Ratio	16.64%	16.24%	Down by 40 bps
7	Leverage Ratio	8.11%	7.90%	Down by 21 bps
8	NSFR Ratio	185.73%	185.25%	Down by 48 bps

There are various Regulatory and Prudential Limits which are linked to Tier 1 Capital and Total Capital of the Bank. Since, there is a change in Tier 1 capital and Total Capital of the Bank, the following limits has also undergone a change:

- Single and Group Borrower Limit
- Investment Limits,
- Various Advances Limits and
- All other Limits linked to Tier 1 Capital and Total Capital of the Bank.

Sachin Kumar
Chief Risk Officer